You can purchase a quick test (not a PCR test) in any pharmacy. The pharmacies : Apotheka, BENU Apteek, Súdameapteek.

2. TRANSPORT in Tallinn

2.1. Taxi

Bolt

You can download several apps for using it as a taxi service (for example Bolt, Yandex Go).

The prices may vary, depending on the day time as well as the preferred class (basic/protect/premium/electric, etc.), but it will cost you from 4,50 EUR up to 11 EUR (approximately) to get from the Airport to the hotel. Before ordering the car you could see how much it would cost you to get from point A to point B, depending on the chosen preferences.

Another option is to use Tallinn's public transport.

Tallink Taxi is the official taxi from in front of the airport/port. It's reasonably priced.

2.2. Tram

Tram line no. 4 stop is located on the city side of the passenger terminal of the airport. On Mondays through Saturdays, the first tram arrives at the airport at 5:25 AM and at 5:45 on Sundays. The last tram from the airport leaves at 0:45 AM, allowing also the passengers arriving on the late evening flights to reach the city centre with public transport.

The journey to the city centre takes approximately 15-17 minutes. Information on tram lines and stops can be found HERE. There is an option of switching the language to English.

For a single trip, you can buy a QR-ticket on the Internet or at the ticket machine located in the tram waiting hall (1.50€). The ticket is valid for one hour.

You can buy the transport card and load money to it at the R-kiosk in the open area of the airport. Using a transport card is free for the residents of Tallinn. You can find more information about tickets HERE.

2.3. How to buy tickets for the public transport
